Talbot Underwriting Ltd work with a range of clients across this specialist sector offering fine art, specie, jewellers block and cash in transit insurance cover.

Our fine art clients include private individuals, museums, commercial galleries, dealers, auction houses, and organisers of fine art exhibitions.

The specie risks underwritten are predominantly vault exposures for the storage of bullion, cash, precious metals and negotiable and non-negotiable securities. We also cover banks and financial institutions on a physical loss or damage basis, including coverage in excess of government compensation schemes, for instance excess SIPC insurance.

Jewellers block and cash in transit cover can also be provided on a premises or transit basis.

The business underwritten emanates from all over the world and we cover the risk while in transit and/or at rest.

An experienced and dedicated underwriting team, along with a diverse product portfolio, allows for a tailored approach to managing clients' needs.

We also offer war and terrorism cover in conjunction with fine art and specie risks.
