We are well-positioned to underwrite property within the downstream energy and power sectors, including the following occupancies:

- Oil, gas and petrochemicals (including onshore oil and gas production, refining, downstream petrochemicals and related hydrocarbon assets)
- Chemical (including inorganic chemicals, finished plastic manufacturing and pharmaceuticals)
- Power generation and utilities
- Coverage is 'all risk' and includes machinery breakdown and business interruption where required.

Engineers are an integral part of this underwriting team, offering extensive industrial experience and insight as well as technical support through desk-based reviews and site surveys.
